1. Purpose of This Guide

- I want to start a homestay.
- I run a hotel and need registration.
- I organise tour packages.
- I work as a tourist guide.
- My tourism registration is expiring.
- Which tourism licence should I apply for?

This document is only for identifying and comparing services.

The chatbot must use the automatically generated service knowledge for:

- Required documents
- Application form fields
- Fees
- Processing time
- Renewal configuration
- Approval flow
- Certificate details
- Current CAF requirement

4. Is the accommodation a homestay, hotel or resort?

9. Important Distinctions

Homestay vs Hotel/Resort

Recommend Homestay registration when the user specifically operates accommodation as a homestay.

Recommend Hotel/Resort registration when the establishment operates commercially as a hotel or resort.

When unclear, ask:

Is the accommodation being operated as a homestay, hotel or resort?

Do not decide only from the size of the property unless official verified thresholds are available.

Tourist Guide vs Tour Operator/Travel Agent

Recommend the Tourist Guide service when the user personally guides tourists.

Recommend the Tour Operator/Travel Agent service when the user operates a business arranging tours or travel services.

When unclear, ask:

Do you personally guide tourists, or do you operate a business that arranges travel and tour packages?

New Registration vs Renewal

When a user says they already have a registration or certificate, ask:

Are you renewing the existing registration, changing its details, or applying under a different business category?

Use live or generated renewal information before confirming that renewal is available.

Tourism Registration vs Other Departmental Approvals

Tourism registration may not replace other approvals such as:

- Trade licence
- Building permission
- Occupancy certificate
- Fire-related approval
- Pollution-related approval
- Food-related registration
- Electricity or water connection

This discovery document must not state which additional approval is compulsory unless that requirement is officially verified.
